Sukkot Harvest Festival 2021 Event Sponsorship

Dear Community Partner,

Thanks to generous supporters like you, Coastal Roots Farm is able to nourish community by providing equitable food access for those in need, environmental education for students, families, and community members, and Jewish engagement opportunities for people of all backgrounds.

The holiday of Sukkot is an ancient Jewish harvest festival reflecting themes of hospitality and welcoming the stranger. We mark Sukkot with our biggest event of the year, the Sukkot Harvest Festival bringing people together to connect to the land, Jewish tradition, and each other. On Sunday, September 19, 2021, from 11am-3pm, the Farm will come alive with live music, local food, Farm Tours, and compelling, alternative, holiday-based activities for all ages. Sukkot at Coastal Roots Farm celebrates unity among diversity as we welcome people from all walks of life to share in a collective celebration of the changing of seasons and connection to our neighbors.

We invite you to support our Sukkot Harvest Festival through event sponsorship. Your generous contribution supports Coastal Roots Farm's community impact around regenerative agriculture, equitable food access, environmental education, and Jewish life.

Since our inception in 2014, the Farm has grown and distributed over 281,000 pounds of produce to over 202,000 individuals, many of whom lack access to healthy food. Since inception, the Farm has reached over 35,000 individuals of all ages through unique hands-on programs including School and Group Visits, Farm Tours, volunteer opportunities, Farm Camp, Shabbat programs, and Jewish agricultural events. Like our on-site Farm Stand, our programs are offered on a pay-what-you-can basis to ensure equitable access to these meaningful experiences.

Please contact Allie at allie@coastalrootsfarm.org or (858) 342-0289 to discuss Sponsorship opportunities.

Todah Rabah (thank you very much),
